

All about Seals

By Julia

Description

- Adult seals have black marks on their back .
- They can grow to 16 feet.
- Seals have white fur to hide from polar bears.
- Adult seal are easy to spot because they have black marks on their back

Food

- Adult seals eat shellfish, krill, squid, crustaceans, herring and even salmon.
- They can eat about 18 pounds each days.

Habitat

- Most seals live in the coldest area in the world.
- Seals may dive 1,000 feet
- They live in cold ocean water.

Life Cycle

- Mother seals give the babies milk until the baby seals can find it on their own.
- Baby seals close their eyes, ears, and even nose when they swim.
- Baby seals are called pups, they have pleasant soft fur to keep the babies warm.

Fun Facts

- Seals sound like they are making sounds like moans and wails.
- Elephant Seals Some seals can hold their breath 2 hours.
- can stay underwater for about 15 minutes.

