

Bald Eagles

By Christian R.

Description

- Bald eagle's' wingspan is over 7 feet.
- Eagles weigh 4 to 5 pounds.
- They have yellow eyes, a white head, and brown and white feathers.
- Eagles are believed to see 5 times better than humans.

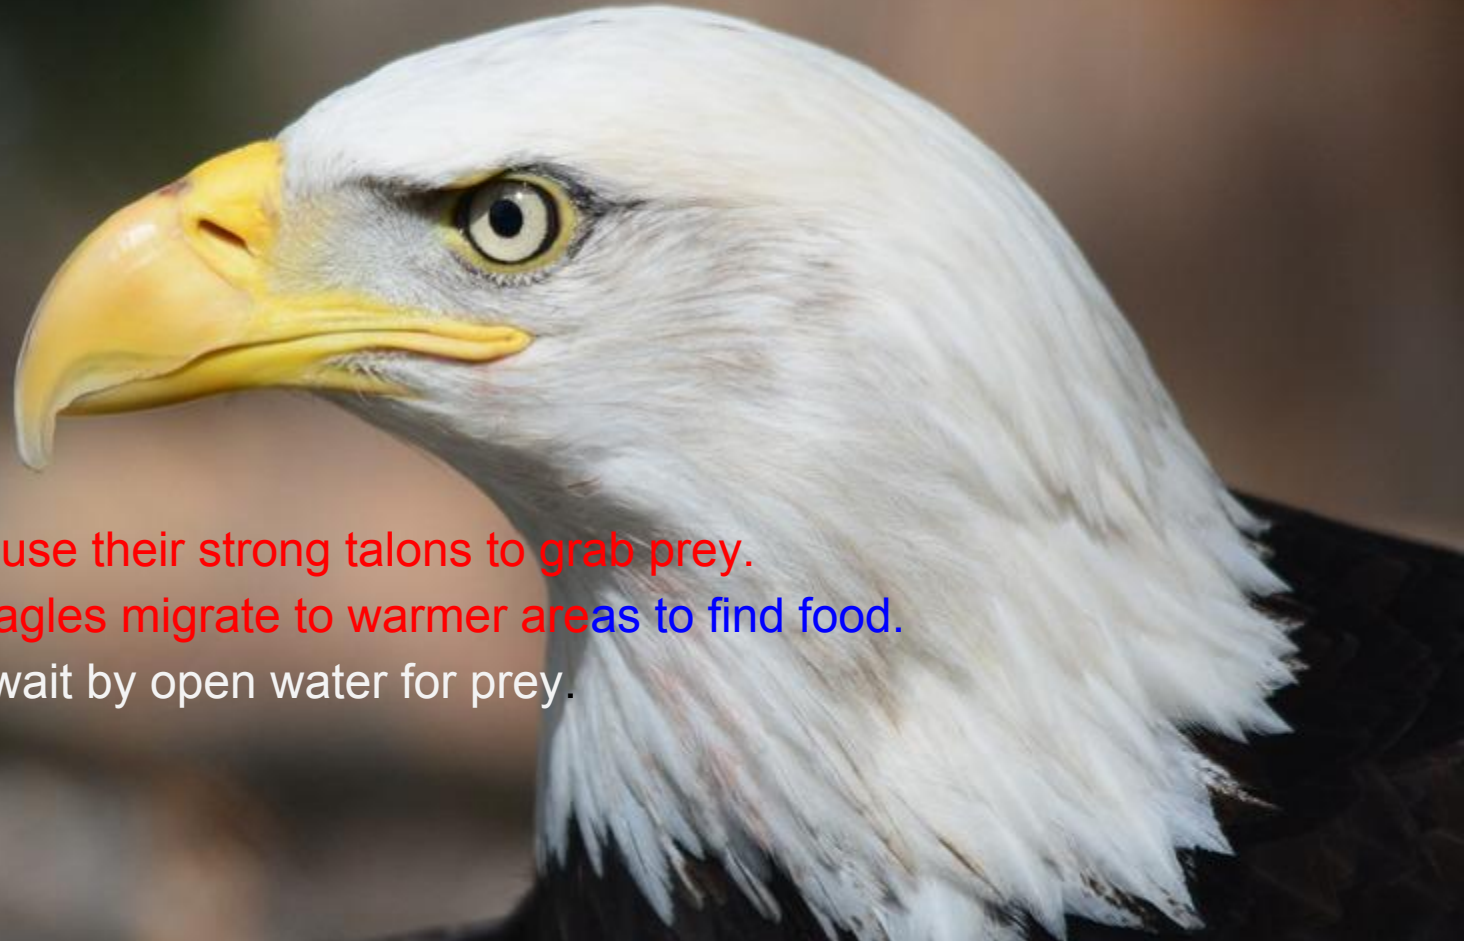

Habitat

- Bald eagles are found in the U.S border and north Mexico.
- They live in swamps, rivers, and seacoasts.
- Bald eagles build their nest near rivers, lakes and marshes.

Food

- Bald eagles use their strong talons to grab prey.
- Some bald eagles migrate to warmer areas to find food.
- Bald eagles wait by open water for prey.

Life Cycle

- Bald eagles usually spends time in their egg 35 days.
- Bald eagles spend time with their parents 4 to 5 months.
- The babies are called eaglets.

Fun facts

- Did you know that a bald eagle's cry is a kleeek kik or a kak kak?
- There are nearly 10,000 in the lower 48 states
- There are more than 15,00 bald eagles in Alaska.