

A male peacock stands in a lush green field, its tail feathers fanned out in a wide, circular display. The feathers are a vibrant blue and green, with many small, circular 'eyes' that shimmer in the light. The peacock's body is a deep blue, and its neck is a lighter shade of blue. The background is a dense thicket of green foliage.

Peacocks

by Emerson

DESCRIPTION

- Hight 5 ft
- Males have beautiful tails with eye looking spots
- They weigh 8-13 pounds

Habitat

- Mainly live in South Asia
- Also live India ,Pakistan ,and Sri Lanka
- Fly into trees get away from predators

Food

A vibrant field of tulips in various colors including pink, red, white, and yellow. The flowers are in full bloom, and the background is a soft-focus field of more tulips.

- Eat arthropods, amphibians, flowers, seeds, lizards, insects, fruits, and grasses
- They are omnivores.

Life Cycle

A young, fluffy brown and white chick is the central focus, standing in a field of green plants. The chick has a yellowish beak and is looking towards the left. In the background, a larger adult bird with iridescent blue and green feathers is partially visible. The overall scene is a natural, outdoor setting with various green plants and some dry twigs.

- Lay 3-8 tan eggs
- Live 20 years
- Males loud call attracts females

- Related to chickens
- Main predators are tigers, leopards, and mongoose
- Some are white

Fun Facts