

SHEEP

By Liv

DESCRIPTION

- Sheep are white, black, brown, gray, silver and red.
- Sheep have a foot called a hoof.
- Sheep also have horns and tails

HABITAT

- Sheep live on farms and ranches
- China has the largest number of sheep in the world
- Sheep live in Australia and America

A photograph of a sheep with thick, light-colored wool grazing in a lush green field. The sheep is positioned in the center-left of the frame, facing right. The word "FOOD" is written in a stylized, purple font above the sheep's back.

FOOD

- They eat grass, hay and oats
- They like to eat plants in fields
- They also drink water

LIFE CYCLE

- Most ewes give birth to lambs in the spring
- Most ewes give birth to twins
- Sheep can live between 10 to 20 years

FUN FACTS

- The wool on a sheep keep them dry and warm.
- Sheep have a sharp sense of smell.
- They can also smell if a predator is near.

