

VULTURES

BY: OLAF

Description

- Weigh up to 33 pounds
- Californian condors weigh 25 pounds
- They are brown, white or black

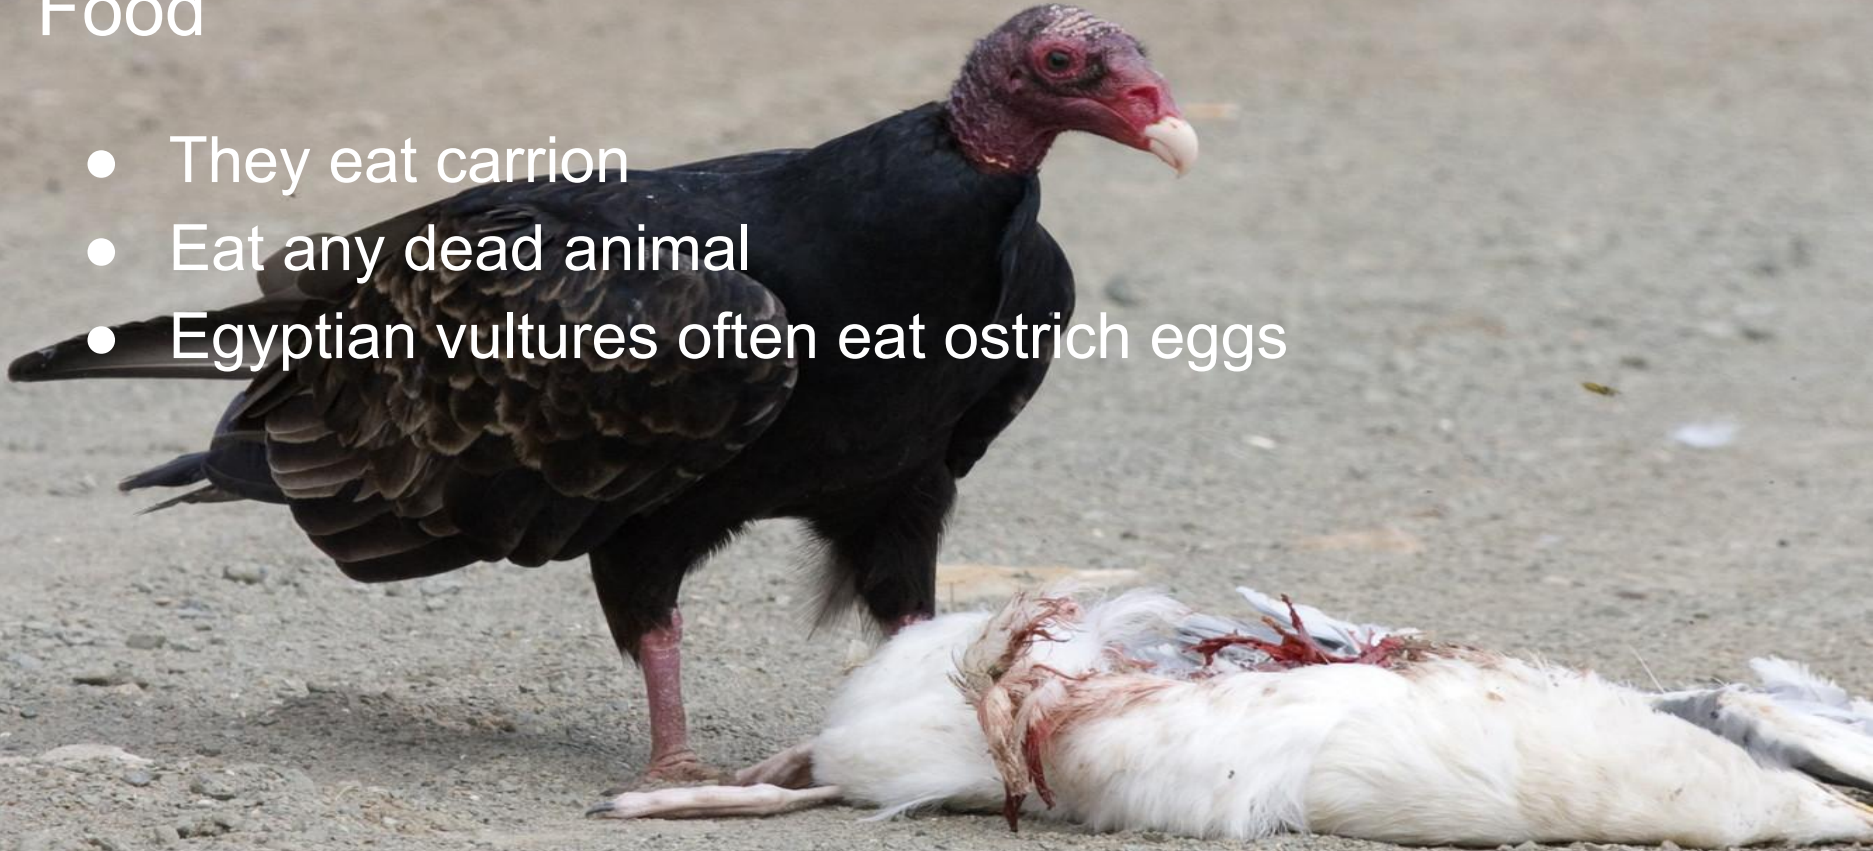

Habitat

- Live in Asia, Africa, South America and Central America
- Build nests on cliffs and trees
- Also live in deserts, rainforests and cities

Food

- They eat carrion
- Eat any dead animal
- Egyptian vultures often eat ostrich eggs

Life Cycle

- Lay one to three eggs
- Babies hatch less than 2 months
- Males and Females both care for their young

Fun Facts

- Some vultures don't eat for 2 weeks
- The king vulture gets some of the first bites before the others can eat
- There are 22 species of vultures

